Re: C&D thesciencepost.com

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am General Counsel to The Trump Organization and Donald J. Trump, the well-known businessman, real estate developer, star of the television show The Apprentice and President of the United States of America. As such, I write to demand that you immediately cease and desist from engaging in any further posting of false articles concerning Mr. Trump and remove all articles from your website which involve the Trump name.

As I am sure you are aware, the Trump name is internationally known and famous as a result of Mr. Trump's long, extensive, and high-profile business and entertainment related activities. Mr. Trump is the owner of the Trump name as a trademark, as well as hundreds of additional trademarks that incorporate the Trump name, all of which we scrupulously protect.

With this background in mind, it has come to our attention that you have repeatedly posted and shared false stories and news about Mr. Trump which may impact his reputation and brand value. Please be advised that the continued use of this Domain to spread such false and defamatory articles will result in legal action as this is the very definition of libel.

In short, Mr. Trump considers this to be a very serious matter and has authorized our legal team to take all necessary and appropriate actions to bring an immediate halt to your blatant and defamatory actions. If we do not receive these assurances, we will pursue all remedies available to us at law or in equity against you.

I look forward to your prompt written response.

Very yours,

Alan Garten.
